MRS. FREDA OPPENHEIMER,

OF WEBSTER CITY, IOWA, RE-ELECTED WORTHY GRAND MATRON.

OUR WORTHY GRAND MATRON.

It is with sincere pleasure that we present this month the portrait of Sister Freda Oppenheimer, just re-elected to the Grand East by the Grand Chapter of Iowa, in Sioux City. Sister Oppenheimer needs no more complimentary notice than the results of her rule over Star affairs in the state during the past year, as well as her graceful presidence over the important body at whose head she stands—an ornament and an honor. Her local affiliation is with the Chapter at Webster City, but she is a sister to all of us, and well worthy of the high honor given her in a second term.

Among the Lodges.

At Sheldon the lodge is one of the best housed in the state. If the material we met as having just begun in Masonry is a specimen we do not wonder that Sheldon is a "way up" Masonic town.

The net increase in the lodge at Waterloo is seventy-five for this year so far. The W. M. Brother Martin carries a list of resident Masons who do not belong to his lodge and the result is self evident. They will raise forty-five this year, carrying over five from last year. Who can excel that record?

Up at Greeley they have one of the best lodges in the state, with a comfortable home too small for their more than 100 members, but well kept in the prospect of a new home from the ground up ere long. They have plenty of work ahead.

At the recent communication of the Grand Lodge of Illinois the following officers were elected: Grand Master, Geo. M. Moulton, Chicago; Deputy Grand Master, William B. Wright, Effingham; Senior Grand Warden, Chester E. Allen, Galesburg; Junior Grand Warden, A. H. Bell, Carlinville; Grand Treasurer, W. M. Egan, Chicago; Grand Secretary, J H. C Dill, Bloomington.

Northwood with W. M. Hurd in the lead keeps forging ahead in the good work, to which they see no immediate end. We were glad to greet a number of brothers on October 31st.

Over at Dubuque matters seldom fluctuate, so they are reported as doing usually well. We expect to hit off Charley Wale's phiz in these columns next month.

By the death of John Logan Power of Mississippi the Grand Lodge of that state lost a man who had been Grand Secretary for thirty-two years. Frederic Speed has been appointed to fill the vacancy.

There is to be a Masonic Fair held on the eighth floor of the Masonic Temple, Minneapolis, December 2-7, 1901.

The Royal Arch.

Meribah Chapter No. 96 R. A. M. of Greeley, Iowa, tendered a banquet to its own, visiting companions and their ladies on October 30th. To say that it was a success is common place. It was a double header in the fact that when we arrived at the chapter room chairs were arranged and a real familiar conversation was carried on until eight o'clock, when Companion A. B. Holbert announced the first section of the program. At nine the lines were formed and about 150 persons marched to the banquet hall where a most delightful many-course feast was spread. Our fortune was to be seated by Rev. Mrs. Crum, wife of our brother, the late Rev. Amos Crum, who is now the pastor of the Universalist church there. Companion Holbert as toastmaster introduced Companion W. F. LeRoy, of Manchester, for a response to his address of welcome, while Sister Crum responded for Companion L. Matthews, who was absent. Our privilege was to close the list of toasts and after happy greetings to leave the room at low twelve. Meribah has three or four "teams" on the way and other work in sight. They now have over eighty companions on the roll and the end not in sight. Greeley is distinctly a Masonic town and no mistake. We hope to meet them soon again.

Northwood is talking strongly of applying for a chapter of R. A. M., and would be a good location for one.

Commanderies.

Sir Knight Smith, late of Le Mars, son-in-law of Sir Tom Adamson, is now settled at Templar Park, where he has charge as resident custodian.

Sir Knight Dr. Geo. A. Isbell has removed from Maquoketa to Clinton. He is one of the best eye specialists in this section.

At Cherokee October 20-21, we met E. Sir Knight Joseph Green and Frank Webber, who report things all complacent in their community. Sir Knight Green is anxious to encourage a San Francisco Templars Club for 1904 and stands ready to take an active hand in the work.

In Dubuque we were glad to see Sir Knight Hanks so far recovered as to be able to resume his professional duties.

We have as yet no word from the Grand Commander as to his appointment of a successor to Sir Knight Ercanbrack on the Board of Templar Park Trustees.

The Scottish Rite.

At the Supreme Council of the S. M. J. held in October there were 225 candidates approved for the Knight Commander of the Court of Honor. From Iowa were the following: Erastus Alonzo Wadleigh, Clinton; John Henry Potts, Lyons; Elmer Ellsworth Webster, Clarinda; Webb Souers, Des Moines; George W. Macartney, Des Moines; Walter Scott Palmer, Vinton; Henry A Dyer, Mason City; Francis Marinn Drake, Centerville; Charles Linderman, Clarinda; Alois Henry Ruebsam, Davenport.

There were 100 nominated for honorary 33°, of whom the following were from Iowa: William Peters Hepburn, Clarinda; Almor Stern, Logan; William Beardshear, Ames; Frederick Charles Macartney, Des Moines; Henry Plumb, Des Moines; Richard Morris Johnson Coleman, Des Moines; Horatio Frederick Dale, Des Moines; Clark Chandler Griffin, Vinton; Sherman R. Williams, Clinton; Frederick E. Bachelder, Clinton; George L. Osborne, Davenport; Cornelius J. Brown, Davenport; Joseph Gage Rounds, Des Moines; Albert Head, Jefferson; William H. A. Parks, Woodward.

BRACE UP!

Brother B. R. Sherman succeeds the late Brother T. S. Parvin as Inspector General of Iowa, who will hold that position until the meeting of the Supreme Council.

Brother Woodruff, don't you know that an active 33° is a lifer and that our surviving I. G. will continue unless retired or dead?

Just as we go to press comes the ballustre of the Autumn Reunion of the bodies of the Rite in the Valley of Davenport for November 20, 21 and 22, 1901. Many thanks to the registrar for the timely information.

All members of the Rite "the world over" will regret to hear that Secretary General Webber of the S. M. J. Supreme Council is in poor health. He is the senior active 33° and the last of the old guard of the days when the honors were not as pronounced as now.

The next annual meeting of the Supreme Council N. M. J. will be in Providence, R. I., Sept. 18, 1902.

We stand at the meeting place of the ages. The past we know. Its marvelous advance in all the arts and sciences is an open book and part of our everyday life. Old things have passed away and all things have become new. The sluggish life of a hundred years ago is vitalized and pulsating with the present. In faith and confidence we look forward, and not then to forecast the changes and development it has in store. But of one thing we may feel sure, and that is that this ancient order of ours will look out upon the affairs of men a century hence with the same calm, unmoved face with which it looks on us. It has been a part of the life and growth of men in time past, and so it will be in time to come. Its growth and potency will remain while men remain. The centuries past are only the harbingers of the centuries to come.—Samuel J. Elder, Mass.

TUT! TUT!!

Speaking of queer lodge names, how does "Vigorous Trojan, No. 548," of Marion, Iowa, strike you?

Cannot our dear old "sleepy hollow" contemporary wake up to the fact that out west we think it better to say "vigorous" Trojan than to elaborate on the fact that Trojan No. 548 is still vigorous.

From Grand Master Baker came the news that at Ottumwa lately they held a Lodge of Sorrow for the late President; for Theodore S. Parvin and to the memory of their own dead.

While Grand Master Baker favors the building of an addition to the Masonic Library as a monument to Father Parvin, another, whom we quote elsewhere, thinks what we have don't do any of us much good.

If the present apparent activity in all bodies throughout the state betokens anything it points to a more than usual growth in the months to come. It speaks well for the ancient and honorable institution that her growth goes on unhindered and undisturbed.

How many opportunities for the fulfillment of our bounden duties as Freemasons do we let go by? It should ever be remembered that the performance of these brings happiness to others and a rich reward to ourselves. It pays to be devoted members of the craft.

The Mystic Shrine.

EL-KAHIR MET AT ANAMOSA,

OCTOBER 25TH.

For a long time Noble Al. C. Comstock, commander of El-Kahir Patrol, had been urging the officers to hold a meeting at Anamosa—so on October 25th, the camels and tents were shipped over the Milwaukee trail, and the old reliable camped for a day and a night under the walls of grim Fort Hunter, where the Arabs mingled fearlessly with the natives, broke bread with them and ate salt and even opened the gates of their most seclusive of homes. Twenty-two poor weary sons of the desert know more now than they did before—about the Shrine—and we all know that a successful meeting can be held in a small city. The arrangements were all carried out in full form. The work and the "traditional" were both carried on under one roof, and that without a hitch or a break. The local committee co-operated with the officers of the Temple. The Eastern Star Chapter served the banquet. Noble Leo and his quartette; a voluntary orchestra from the ranks of Kaaba visitors, and Prof. Sanford of Cedar Rapids, helped to swell the wealth of entertainment so that when the last toast was given it was well on toward three in the morning of October 26, 1901.

There were some 140 red caps in town, including the candidates. Many of our Kaaba neighbors, one Medinah, one Abdallah with a Teballah or two showed that the fame of El Kahir has not failed her. Anamosa gave the largest local list El-Kahir has had for years in any of her meetings.

THE PETERS MEMORIAL.

On Sunday, October 27th, Mecca Temple, Mystic Shrine, will dedicate the memorial erected on its plot in Kensico Cemetery to the late Potentate, Augustus W. Peters, 33°. The service will be very elaborate. Crowley's Eighth Regiment Band and a vocal quartet will furnish the music. A special train on the Harlem road will leave the Grand Central station at 10 a. m. Next week we will publish a full description of the memorial and an account of the plans for the dedication.—Standard.

It was refreshing to meet Nobles E. C. Stevenson, J. F. Lavender, and Sir Knight J. C. Kerr, of Rockwell City, October 19th. A smile and a call, but to meet again soon with royal brothers.

Medinah Temple, Chicago, gave "Fra Diavolo," a romantic opera in three acts, for the entertainment of members, the ladies and visiting Nobles, on October 25th. Sorry we could not attend.

Almas puts up a high board fence affair for October 31st, that is very catchy.

Aladdin Temple, Columbus, Ohio, comes to us with the first "California Pilgrimage Committee" circular under date of October 1st.

Kalurah, in their notice for November 8th, had a page in mourning for our late President, Brother Wm. McKinley.

Mecca gave her first ladies' night of the season, November 11th.

Islam unbottled herself in great shape last month. Her "Malsi-elpmet" must be the preparation they'll give us next June.

Ismalia had a regular and a ladies' reception in October.

Rajah opens the fall campaign auspiciously—Rake and Jost battery.

Sesostris shows up for November 15 in poetry set to several languages, but the greatest of all, is hardy as a rough rider.

Lu Lu, the Imperial Potentate's home temple, looms up all O. K. with Scott, umpire, and Ross, pitcher.

Mt. Sinai opened out November 1st with a harvest festival in Brattleboro, Vt.

El-Jebel gave their annual fall ladies' night October 14th, and landed a ceremonial November 14th.

Melha had the honor of Imperial Philip's presence on October 24th.

Tibala came out in red and black and white for October 23rd. Their "flying machine" is a new one.

Zuhrah had a "circus" on October 18th. They always have a good time there.

Noble Tom Heffner, of Farley, was severely injured near Monticello, October 14th, in a collision. He will recover.

Honors are piling thick and fast upon the head of Bro. Lou B. Winsor, Past Imperial Potentate of the Mystic Shrine. The Grand Lodge of Michigan elected him Grand Lecturer at its last session, and now President Roosevelt has appointed him postmaster at Reed City, Mich.—Standard.

The Eastern Star.

GRAND CHAPTER OF IOWA ORDER EASTERN STAR.

Several of the Grand Officers and many of the representatives to this growing Masonic body were in Sioux City as early as Sunday, October 20, and by the time of the opening nearly five hundred Stars were added to the Sioux City constellation.

Monday was visiting day, and in the evening a rehearsal of the Grand Officers took place.

Tuesday a school of instruction by the Grand Officers, as "Blank Chapter No. Naught," was held in the Armory. Tuesday evening a reception was given in the Masonic hall, at which hundreds were in attendance.

Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock the Grand Chapter was opened in form. The Past General Grand and Grand Officers were received in the ancient form, and invited to face the glare of the light, and the brilliant sea of faces constituting the Grand Chapter of Iowa. The Matron of the local Chapter read an address of welcome. A response was made by the Associate Grand Matron, Mrs. Jane Webber.

Bro. Alex. Gardner, P. G. P., of Ontario, presented a portrait of H. Rice Adams, who was "born in a Masonic room." The Committee on Credentials made a partial report. The Grand Matron read her address. Nineteen Chapters U. D. were instituted and one re-organized after eleven years' sleep. The Order of the Eastern Star has entered India, British Columbia, Hawaiian Islands and Scotland. The address of the Grand Patron was read. The Order in Iowa has made splendid growth:

Members last year	13,987
Present membership	15,665
Net gain	1,678

The reports were all referred to the proper committees.

The Committee on Charters and Dispensation reported favorably on new chapters.

The Committee on Jurisprudence made a report upon amendments which will have to be announced later when printed.

The Grand Chapter reversed the action of the Chapter at Riverside, and gave the Brother ninety days' time in which to affiliate with some Lodge, failing in which a dimit from his O. E. S. Chapter shall be issued to him.

We were glad to hear most cheering news from Nancy Baker Chapter, Cincinnati. Charter restored.

The Guthrie Center case was affirmed.

The Committee on Addresses of Grand Officers reported.

The Committee on Chartered Chapters reported that every Chapter had reported according to law.

Sister Nettie Ransford, editor of the Eastern Star, P. M., W. G. M., delivered an address and presented the interests of her paper.

On Wednesday evening the "Chapter of Sorrow" was held and memorial addresses delivered.

Thursday completed the routine business of the Grand Chapter. During the session Grand Sentinel Amos Alberson became so ill as to have to go to the hospital.

The session throughout was unusually interesting. Harmony prevailed.

The Grand Chapter of Iowa honored itself in re-electing Sister Freda Oppenheimer to the Grand East.

The following officers were elected and appointed:

Mrs. Freda Oppenheimer, Webster City, W. G. M.; W. H. Wray, Oskaloosa, G. P.; Mrs. Jane Webber, Cherokee, A. G. M.; J. C. W. Coxe, Knoxville, A. G. P.; Mrs. Maria Jackson, Council Bluffs, G. S.; Mrs, Ella L. Houghton, Red Oak, G. T.; Mrs. Fannie Sever, Stuart, G. C.; Mrs. Allena D. Ward, Eldora, A. G. C.; Mrs. Herrig, Wall Lake, G. A.; Mrs. Watson, Thornburg, G. R.; Mrs. Eva Prugh, Seymour, G. E.; Mrs. Stewart, Cedar, Rapids, G. E.; Mrs. Davis, Montezuma, Chaplain; Mrs. Silliman, Colo, Marshal; Amos Alberson, Washington, G. S. The appointments of Martha, Warden and Organist we failed to get.

We owe P. G. M. Delia B. Meredith, many thanks for securing the list of officers for us.

Place of next meeting Oskaloosa.

The question of an Eastern Star Home was considered and Iowa is likely to do her duty along this line in a short time.

W. H. WRAY,

W. GRAND PATRON OF IOWA ORDER EASTERN STAR.

We are much pleased to present the portrait of the distinguished Mason and brother of the Eastern Star in Iowa, who from the floor of the Grand Chapter, was elected to the highest place in the councils of the Order in Iowa to which a man may aspire. For more than a dozen years we have witnessed the career of the Grand Patron and he has stood well up to the average. Our space and our lack of information preclude any Masonic sketch of the brother; but we can assure the Order that the Grand Chapter at Sioux City honored itself in electing Hon. W. H. Wray, Mayor of Oskaloosa, Iowa, to the Grand East. He will necessarily be the ranking host of the Grand Chapter next year, and he's a good entertainer. We give him the grand honors.

THE A. G. P. INTERVIEWED.

A TEN-CENT BURDEN—MASONS INTERESTED IN THE WAIL OF DR. COXE, OF WASHINGTON.

Members of the Masonic fraternity in Iowa will be much interested in the following interview with Dr. Coxe, of Washington, in the Sioux City Journal:

"I do not think the Grand Chapter will act favorably on Brother Small's proposition to erect a Widows' and Orphans' Home," said Rev. J. C. W. Coxe, Grand Patron, of Washington, Iowa. "That matter was settled some time ago, I think. The Masonic Grand Lodge has a charity fund and provides in this way for its unfortunate. The Eastern Star wants to go slow in taking up a proposition like this. It is more than it can do alone. The Masons have all they can do to take care of the Masonic Library founded by Theodore S. Parvin at Cedar Rapids."

"Is that a sort of white elephant?"

"Not exactly that; but it is a heavy expense, and little good it does any member of the order."—Gazette.

While at Greeley, October 30th, it was our pleasure to meet the W. M. and a number of the members of their Chapter and find that they are enjoying similar prosperity to their brothers of the other Masonic bodies. They have nearly one hundred members.

Star affairs are prospering at Northwood where we met a number of Sisters and Brothers October 31st.

Up at Sheldon on our way to Grand Chapter we passed a quiet Sunday, October 20th, and those whom we met showed us a model Star Chapter room in Masonic hall.

The statistics of the G. G. C. show 218,319 members in 3,492 Chapters. Six Grand Chapters have been organized during the triennium—Maryland, Louisiana, Tennessee, Arizona, Georgia and Alabama. Connecticut and Vermont heretofore independent have affiliated. There are 95 subordinate Chapters under the direct jurisdiction of the General Grand.

It is probable that the next meeting in 1904, will go to Kansas City.

We were just one evening too late for the meeting of the Chapter at Rockwell City, on Oct. 18th. The worthy Matron of this Chapter was about to remove to Harlan.

Illinois has 478 Chapters with 27,000 members. A home for orphans is supported by the order at Macon, Ill. A combination into which Iowa Masons in all their concordant bodies can and ought to enter in due time.

Fraternities.

INVESTIGATING FRATERNAL ORDERS.

Samuel H. Nichols, secretary of state and insurance commissioner of Washington, is making a tour of the East inspecting the laws of the various states regulating and governing fraternal life associations. Mr. Nichols states that there has been an unprecedented growth of this class of concerns in the State of Washington, and he proposes to investigate the state laws in addition to making an examination of all the fraternals doing business in Washington and having their head offices in the East.—D P.

WANT SEPARATE DEPARTMENT.

Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 1.—A plan is on foot among fraternal insurance men to introduce a bill in the next legislature for the establishment of a separate department for the supervision of fraternal insurance companies.

SWINDLED INSURANCE COMPANIES.

(Special to the Record-Herald.)

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 3.—Charles Reinmund, with thirty aliases and wanted all over the United States for insurance frauds, pleaded guilty in the Circuit Court this evening, and was sentenced to the penitentiary at Joliet by Judge Puterbaugh under the indeterminate act. Reinmund was arrested here last February at the instance of two local insurance men, and scores of sick and accident policies were found in his possession. His plan was to take out a sick or accident policy, and, feigning sickness or accident realize on it. At one time he confesses to making as high as $500 or $600 a week by this plan. The police authorities at Detroit were after him, and rather than go there he entered a plea of guilty.

A. W. Giehm, secretary of the Sioux City lodge of B. P. O. Elks yesterday received from the secretary of the Nashville lodge copies of Nashville newspapers containing stories telling of the success of the recent Elks' carnival in that city. The carnival was held from September 10 to 21, and was one of the grandest and most successful amusement affairs ever given in the south. "This carnival made the Elks stronger than ever down here," was a statement in one of the papers, in which connection it was said, "and they certainly were strong enough before." The city was beautifully decorated and illuminated and every night there was a parade.

After much vexatious and expensive quarreling an effort to enjoin, and other tactics of annoyance, the Modern Brotherhood of America has settled down to business, and our friend Tom Hanley, of Tipton, still stands at the helm.

The Ancient Phonician Order of Noblemen of Tyre is making rapid progress lately, courts having been instituted last month in Sheldon and Des Moines.

Book Table and Invitations.

From Grand Recorder Cherry we have the proceedings of Iowa Grand Commandery for 1901.

From Comp. Alf. Wingate we have the proceedings of the Grand Chapter R. A. M. of Iowa, 1901.

From W. Bro. Geo. A. Pettigrew the proceedings of all the grand bodies of South Dakota, for 1901.

From E. Sir Yancey C. Blalock, of Walla Walla, Wash., the proceedings of Grand Commandery and Chapter of Washington, 1901.

From Noble James McGee, of New York, a photograph of the memorial to Noble Augustus W. Peters, 33°, erected by Mecca Temple.

We have the reports on Necrology for the Grand Commandery, written by Grand Prelate Dr. Green; for the Grand Chapter by Rev. Dr. J. C. W. Coxe, both for the sessions of 1901.

Along with the cheerful spirit and a merry eye, our illustrious brother, Sam Briggs, of Cleveland, is a literary cuss as well. His latest contributon to rare and entertaining literature is the collection entitled "Entertainment for the Winter's Evening," with other poems by Joseph Green. We place it on file for a careful reading, as we do all matters sent to us by our dear Brother Sam.

From the same source we have a "History of Al Koran Temple, Cleveland, Ohio," being their silver jubilee brochure and a valuable little volume.

From R. E. Sir John Corson Smith we have the report on Templar Correspondence for Illinois for 1901. No work from his brain or hands ever comes to us without its being an inspiration. This report is no exception.

ASTHMA CURE FREE!

Asthmalene Brings Instant Relief and Permanent Cure in All Cases.

SENT ABSOLUTELY FREE ON RECEIPT OF POSTAL.

There is nothing like Asthmalene. It brings instant relief, even in the worst cases. It cures when all else fails.

The Rev. C. F. WELLS, of Villa Ridge, Ill., says: "Your trial bottle of Asthmaline received in good condition. I cannot tell you how thankful I feel for the good derived from it. I was a slave, chained with putrid sore throat and asthma for ten years. I despaired of ever being cured. I saw your advertisement for the cure of this dreadful and tormenting disease, asthma, and thought you had overspoken yourselves, but resolved to give it a trial. To my astonishment, the trial acted like a charm. Send me a full-sized bottle."

We want to send to every sufferer a trial treatment of Asthmalene, similar to the one that cured Mr. Wells. We'll send it by mail POST-PAID, ABSOLUTELY FREE OF CHARGE, to any sufferer who will write for it, even on a postal. Never mind, though you are despairing, however bad the case, Asthmalene will relieve and cure. The worse your case, the more glad we are to send it. Do not delay. Write at once, addressing,
